

Course Offerings for Fall, 1994

Wednesdays, October 5, 12, 19, 26

8:30-10:00 a.m.

- The Inside Story of Bradley University

Class Leader: Paul Sawyer Student Center Wright Conference Room #203
Study the life of Lydia Moss Bradley, the history of Bradley University including athletics and the future of Bradley.

- Economics: Everything You Ever Wanted to Know But Were Afraid to Ask

Class Leader: Ed Flanagan Student Center Meeting Room #2
As a retired professor of economics, Ed will lead a discussion of economics as it applies to our lives today including the difficulties of balancing the federal budget, what happens to our money, and more.

- It Sounds Like Spanish To Me

Class Leader: Mary K. Petrucci Student Center Meeting Room #3
Take a trip across the border with Mary to learn some basic Spanish for conversation. Study the language, life and culture of the Spanish people.

10:00-10:30 a.m. COFFEE BREAK FOR ALL: STUDENT CENTER - BRAVES ROOM

Wednesdays, October 5, 12, 19, 26

10:30 a.m.-12:00 Noon

- If It's in a Frame, Is It Art?

Class Leader: Dean Howard Student Center Conference Room #203
Watercolorist, Dean Howard, will lead a gallery talk through an exhibit of some of his paintings. He will also discuss the principles of composition, design, and color including drawing and sketching. In the last session, he will demonstrate his painting style for the class.

- Let's Hear Both Sides

Class Leader: Paul Sawyer Student Center Meeting Room #2
How can we have an opinion without hearing from the other side? Hear an advocate for each side of major issues confronting us today and then participate in a healthy discussion on those issues.

- Taxes-One of the Inevitables

Class Leader: John Ruble Student Center Meeting Room #3
Learn about the birth of taxes. Why do some of us pay and some of us don't? Hear a comparison of business vs. individual taxes and tax laws. Share problems with the IRS. John will probably not be able to teach us how to avoid paying taxes, but who knows?

Wednesdays, October 5, 12, 19, 26

1:00-2:30 p.m.

- It's Music to My Ears

Class Leader: Allen Cannon Student Center Conference Room #203
Dr. Cannon will share his long experience as a performer and lecturer to help us listen more intelligently to music. Explore the difference between "hearing" and "listening" by studying examples of music from various periods in history.

- What Did You Do in WWII, Daddy?

Class Leader: Joe Hession Student Center Conference Room #2
Where were you during World War II? Hear from people who were there including a discussion of the European and Pacific fronts, planes used and the Marines.

- English Literature

Class Leader: Paul Sawyer Student Center Meeting Room #3
Study various approaches to understanding literature from this retired Professor of English followed by a discussion of a major work of British literature.

Fridays, October 7, 14, 21, 28

1:00 -2:30 p.m.

- Computers for Beginners

Class Leaders: John and Ethel Picco Baker Hall #152
Have you ever wondered? - What is a computer? How does it work? The course is not for experts, but is designed for someone who wants to learn how to operate a computer. You'll learn some computer technology and will have some "hands-on" experience.

INSTITUTE FOR LEARNING IN RETIREMENT

BRADLEY UNIVERSITY

A TIME FOR LEARNING

The Institute for Learning in Retirement

The Institute for Learning in Retirement is a new program for mature learners, designed to provide lifelong learning enrichment experiences and to develop opportunities for sharing knowledge and skills with others. The ILR is sponsored by Bradley University for ALUMNI and FRIENDS in affiliation with the Elderhostel Institute Network. The concept of "peer learning" offers classes designed and led by members of the Institute. There are no prerequisites, no exams, no grades—only the opportunity to interact with contemporaries and meet friends, old and new!

Semester membership dues are $50 which entitle members to attend up to three classes of the October session at Bradley University and to receive the Elderhostel Institute newsletter, NETWORK NEWS, and other related events during the fall semester including a holiday reception.
