

Annual Spring Faculty Teaching & Research Forum
Bradley Hall / Neumiller Hall
January 17, 2012

The Annual Spring Forum, sponsored by the Office for Teaching Excellence and Faculty Development, offers discussions of a variety of topics for faculty that are designed to provide useful tools and strategies to enhance teaching and student learning. This year's program will discuss engaging students in General Education courses and using Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SOTL) to inform teaching. Plans call for morning discussions, a luncheon, and a choice of two afternoon breakout sessions to attend on a variety of topics, including:

- The Importance of Analyzing Student Assessments: What are we Assessing, and What are Students Learning?
- Writing Recommendation Letters
- Copyright Issues
- Using Social Media to Enhance Teaching
- Tenure and Promotion Panel Discussion
- Advising Students

SCHEDULE

8:00AM:	Morning Refreshments / Faculty Mixer
8:30AM:	Welcome and Opening Remarks
8:45AM:	Special Remarks by Provost Glassman
9:00AM:	Engaging Students in General Education Courses
10:30AM :	Break
10:45AM:	Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Panel Discussion
12:00PM:	Lunch
1:30PM:	Breakout Session 1
2:15PM:	Breakout Session 2
3:00PM:	Program Concludes

- R.S.V.P. by Friday, January 13th to Kim Willis at kswillis@bradley.edu and specify whether you will be attending the luncheon.
- Please check the OTEFD website, www.bradley.edu/otefd for details on presenters, times, locations, and breakout session topics.

Sponsored by
The Office for Teaching Excellence & Faculty Development (OTefd)