

Committee Description

Name:

Bradley University Campuswide Conversation Series (BUCCS) Steering Committee

Charge:

To stimulate discussions across the University on issues that can and should affect what Bradley is in the future.

Committee Membership:

Kelly McConnaughay, Chair

Bob Wolffe, Ex-Officio

One faculty member from each college, appointed by their Dean from nominations solicited from the college's Executive Committee.

Additional members as deemed necessary and appropriate by BUCCS committee chair

Operating procedures:

- The group will select topics for campuswide conversations based on input from all university stakeholders.
- The group will develop one or more formats for conversations, with the goal of engaging the widest possible participation.
- The group will develop one or more products from each conversation, including a written summary of each conversation.
- The group will maintain a website with information regarding past and future conversations and outcomes.
- The group will compile a biannual report summarizing events and outcomes to date and recommendations for the future.