

NEWS REPORTER

WCBU public radio, located at Bradley University in Peoria, IL, is seeking candidates for the position of reporter to cover the scenic and affordable Illinois River Valley.

Bradley University is a distinctive, medium-size, comprehensive private institution of higher learning. The University is located on an 85-acre campus in Peoria, the largest metropolitan area in central Illinois. With approximately 5,000 undergraduate and 800 graduate students, Bradley offers the opportunities and choices of a larger university (with over 130 programs in five colleges, plus a graduate school) and the quality, personal attention, and challenge of a small private college. Bradley is rich in tradition and full of promise to become one of the nation's best comprehensive universities. For additional information about the University visit www.bradley.edu.

Responsibilities include producing wraps and features, and contributing to on-line content; developing and producing special news programs; and serving as fill-in program host as needed. Evening and occasional weekend work is required as is participation in on-air pledge drives, and station/community events.

Candidates must possess a bachelor's degree in journalism, broadcasting, communication, political science or related field and have experience writing, reporting, interviewing, and program hosting/anchoring. Digital editing proficiency, superior communication skills, (written and verbal) and ability to demonstrate respect and sensitivity for cultural differences are a must. Candidates must possess and maintain a driver's license and own transportation.

Qualified candidates must submit letter of application addressing the qualifications for the position, current resume, MP3s or a CD including wraps, features, and hosting examples, and complete contact for three professional references electronically to reporter@bradley.edu or via direct mail to:
