

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRICAL AND COMPUTER ENGINEERING

The Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering invites applications for a tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level to begin August 2010.

Bradley University is a distinctive, medium-size, comprehensive private institution of higher learning. The University is located on an 85-acre campus in Peoria, the largest metropolitan area in central Illinois. With approximately 5,000 undergraduate and 800 graduate students, Bradley offers the opportunities and choices of a larger university (with over 130 programs in five colleges, plus a graduate school) and the quality, personal attention, and challenge of a small private college. Bradley is rich in tradition and full of promise to become one of the nation's best comprehensive universities. For additional information about the University visit www.bradley.edu.

An earned PhD and BS in Electrical or Computer Engineering and a primary interest in undergraduate engineering education are required. The department is seeking individuals with interests in power electronics and embedded microcontroller systems and offers a project based and lab intense undergraduate program leading to the BSEE degree as well as a graduate level program leading to the MSEE degree. Further information regarding the department can be found at <http://ee1.bradley.edu/>.

Qualified candidates should send a letter of interest addressing the qualifications for the position, a complete resume including one page statements of both teaching and research interests, a list of completed graduate course work and complete contact information for three professional references to glid@bradley.edu via email as attachments.

Applications will be reviewed as received and the position will remain open until filled.

Bradley University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. The administration, faculty and staff are committed to attracting qualified candidates from underrepresented groups.
