

Part-Time Spanish Instructors

The Department of Foreign Languages at Bradley University is seeking qualified part-time language instructors to teach elementary Spanish for Fall 2010.

Bradley University is a distinctive, medium-size, comprehensive private institution of higher learning. The University is located on an 85-acre campus in Peoria, the largest metropolitan area in central Illinois. With approximately 5,000 undergraduate and 800 graduate students, Bradley offers the opportunities and choices of a larger university (with over 130 programs in five colleges, plus a graduate school) and the quality, personal attention, and challenge of a small private college. Bradley is rich in tradition and full of promise to become one of the nation's best comprehensive universities. For additional information visit about the University visit Bradley University.

Candidates must possess a minimum of a MA in Spanish, native or near-native level fluency in both English and Spanish, and evidence of teaching effectiveness in Spanish language coursework.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the positions are filled. Interested candidates should submit letter of interest addressing the qualifications for the position, current CV and contact information for three professional references electronically to lscondut@bradley.edu or via direct mail to:
