The Department of English offers a scholarly environment for writing and the study of literature. The department believes that this environment will enable students to become lifelong learners, responsible citizens, and successful professionals. The department is committed to

1. developing students' skills for creative, academic, or professional purposes.
2. strengthening students' critical thinking and research skills;
3. increasing students' knowledge and appreciation of the literatures of diverse periods and cultures; and
4. broadening students' understanding of and facility with language.

Students who major or minor in English develop their skills in preparation for careers in teaching, publishing, industry, business, or service agencies; for such professional studies as law, library science, or medicine; or for graduate studies in literature, language, or creative writing.

Bachelor of Arts Degree in English

1. General Requirements

The Bachelor of Arts is the only degree given in English. The B.A. degree requires completion of a 202 or 300-level foreign language course.
