WHAT IS OLLI?

OLLI is an acronym for The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Bradley University, an organization of nearly 1,200 Peoria-area residents who are at least 50 years old and want to stay vital and active as they reach and enjoy retirement. One way to do that is to keep learning, and OLLI offers them many options.

Participants enjoy a diverse collection of year-round programs including non-credit classes, educational travel, study groups, and special events. The only pre-requisite is that they enjoy learning!

Bradley University, OLLI's home, recognizes the importance of the program as a standard of excellence in lifelong learning. Bradley University generously supports OLLI through the provision of staff, meeting space, and services for OLLI. Bradley University's Continuing Education and Professional Development Division sponsors the OLLI program and provides staff for program leadership and oversight. Through two separate $1 million gifts from The Bernard Osher Foundation, OLLI at Bradley is recognized as an Osher program of distinction.

In addition, OLLI is guided by dedicated volunteers who are passionate about their vision of OLLI. This grassroots approach makes everyone a stakeholder in the process and results. The relaxed and friendly atmosphere of OLLI only adds to participants' experiences. It's learning their way!

WE ARE OLLI!

OLLI volunteers are the heart and soul of our organization. We celebrate our success due to their efforts. Thank you!

A LETTER FROM YOUR OLLI PRESIDENT

The great writer Anton Chekhov once wrote, “People don’t notice if it’s Winter or Summer when they’re happy.” I’ve noticed that about OLLI members. We’re a happy lot. We have fun learning and sharing that fun with others. Learning is a lifelong passion of ours, and we engage in it happily, regardless of the season. It may seem a little premature, writing about Winter while it’s still Fall. But, just as Summer is now in our rearview mirror, so soon will be Fall. Winter is inevitable, but we have the enviable opportunity to participate in OLLI programs.

The group of volunteers on the Curriculum Committee has created an outstanding array of courses in our Winter lineup. See pages 4 - 9 for great topics in art, history, literature, community awareness, and health and wellness. We have incredible classes in gardening and finance, as well. There’s an ample assortment from which to choose so we can all remain happy, even though it’s Winter! We have many new instructors and classes as well as those that you have requested to be repeated.

In addition, there are so many study groups from which to choose. Study groups challenge us in myriad ways. We have discussions to engage our minds, the selection is broad, and the facilitator lineup is experienced. There are many new study groups on the schedule and a couple that you have asked us to repeat. We’re offering a great selection of learning trips, too, so be sure to review the schedule and enjoy this aspect of learning with your friends.

I’ll leave you with this final thought as you read through the brochure: “There is no end to education. It is not that you read a book, pass an examination, and finish with education. The whole of life, from the moment you are born to the moment you die, is a process of learning.” Jiddu Krishnamurti

Yours,

Cornell Carr
OLLI President

CLASSES

If you think OLLI classes are like traditional school, you'll be surprised to learn that we take a different approach. Imagine learning only about the topics you choose, taught by engaging instructors, on a college campus, with people your age, and no tests or grades. Add time for socializing, and you have a sense of what we do. It's learning - our way!

TUESDAY, January 8 and
 THURSDAY, January 10
 CLASS: 9:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Coffee: 8:30-9:00 a.m. • Break: 10:00-10:30 a.m.

1. Behind the Scenes: Coroner's Office and Illinois State Police Forensic Sciences Command

In this intriguing class, Peoria County Coroner Jamie Harwood and Joanne Liu, laboratory director for the Illinois State Police Forensic Sciences Command, will provide an in-depth look at their day-to-day work. You'll learn what the Coroner does, how the office operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and how deaths are investigated. Participants will also discover the types of forensic testing conducted at the Command and the science involved with the analyses. In addition, you'll find out what it takes to become a forensic scientist and how the lab ensures confidence in its results. (NIs/NC)

2. Ceramics from the Ground Up

Ceramic production is an enduring record of human artistic activity. This class is an introductory experience for those who want to understand the vocabulary of ceramics as well as distinguish between some of the technical and aesthetic issues concerning specific ceramic production. We will address a brief overview of materials, types of clay and clay fabrication through history, and significant evolutionary firing developments that advanced ceramic art. Lecture and demonstration of various development phases of ceramic process will be used to illustrate the entire process. Class instructor is Randy Carlson, professor of art and ceramics at Bradley University. Please note: this class will be held in the Heuser Art Center at Bradley University; shuttle transportation will be provided. (NI/NC)

3. Evil: Its Origin, Reality, and Relevance

Evil – we think we know it when we see it, but we struggle to define it. Does it even have an objective existence, or is it just another term for what we don't like? If it is a metaphysical reality, what is it, what is its origin, and what does it tell us about the rest of reality? This class will investigate the mystery of evil and follow where the evidence leads. Class instructor is Kirk Schoenbein, associate judge for the Tenth Judicial Circuit. (RI/NC)

4. Fiber and Mixed-Media Art Cards

Trish Williams, a well-known and highly regarded fiber artist and quilter, will share her expertise as you create your own, personally designed and constructed art cards, ready for framing or sharing as a gift. A variety of materials, including fabrics, papers, and embellishments will be provided. Trish will guide you on basic design elements, color choices, and techniques for success. This is a great class for those who like to re-use, recycle, or otherwise create environmentally friendly art. Please note: this class will be held in the Heuser Art Center at Bradley University; shuttle transportation will be provided. (NI/NC)

5. Great Rulers of Russia

What made Yaroslav and Ivan IV great leaders? What about Peter I, Catherine, II, Alexander II ... and even Vladimir Putin? Bradley professor Angela Weck, a member of the faculty of the Institute of International Studies and the Department of History at Bradley University, will explore what made these leaders great and how they impacted Russian history. (RI/NC)

6. How to Live Your Best Life

This class will provide the tools you need to stay healthy and to live your life to its fullest. Participants will learn how to improve balance and strengthen your core, how to manage and prevent chronic pain, and how to prevent incontinence and bladder organ prolapse for men and women. (RIs/NC)

7. Literary Lions

January 8 at 9:00 a.m.

The Mysterious and Uncommon Agatha Christie

Mystery writer Agatha Christie once disappeared for 10 days in 1926. We shall investigate the disappearance and look at the other uncommon features of the author, who wrote 84 books in 85 years. Class instructor is Sandy Stemler, a retired English teacher. (RI/NC)

January 8 at 10:30 a.m.

Charles Dickens: An Overview

Charles Dickens was a prolific writer in England in the mid-19th century, and many of his works reflect the social climate of his times. In this hour, we'll look at both his own life and his attempts to improve the living and working conditions of the poor. Class instructor is Gary Black, a retired English teacher from Bradford High School. (RI/NC)

January 10 at 9:00 a.m.
Peoria's Own Betty Friedan

One of the foremost “literary lions” of all time grew up in Peoria – Betty Friedan. Historians say her first book, The Feminine Mystique, is among the most influential books ever written. Friedan is rightfully remembered for launching and leading a feminist movement that vastly changed our expectations and our laws, but we shouldn’t forget that it all began with a book published in 1963. She went on to write five more books, including an autobiography that talks about how Peoria affected her life. Her last book, The Fountain of Age, applied some of the same critical thinking to aging that The Feminine Mystique applied to women’s roles. We’ll look at these books and the Peorian behind them. Class instructor is Barb Drake, retired Journal Star editorial page editor. (RI/NC)

January 10 at 10:30 a.m.
Ernest Hemingway: The Code and Curse

On a summer day in 1961, Ernest “Papa” Hemingway rose early, donned his favorite robe, placed his shotgun in his mouth, and pulled the trigger. Why? His fiction gave us prose that rang clear, crisp, and clean. He used words sparingly, often leaving the reader to fill the spaces he had left. Was he the greatest prose writer of the 20th century? We can debate, but probably not answer this question. In our hour, we will discuss examples of his best writing. We’ll also discuss the Hemingway “code,” the Hemingway “curse,” and the factors that led to his final moment of despair. Bring your theories and opinions about “Papa.” Class instructor is Murv Pretorius, retired attorney. (NI/NC)

8.The Total Percussion Experience

This class will explore the world of percussion. You’ll see, hear, and experience playing different percussion instruments in the band and symphony world. 9.You Need Estate Planning

Whether your net worth is $5 or $5 million, you need estate planning (unless you want to leave Uncle Sam a large tip). Not all your assets should be treated equally for tax purposes, especially when they are passed on to your beneficiaries. This class will cover the pros and cons of different estate plans and how to avoid costly mistakes, as you are provided with simple-to-understand techniques on how to better organize your planning. Daryl Dagit, with Savant Capital Management, will make you feel comfortable with this complicated topic and explain why he has CFP®, CRPS®, and CEP® after his name. (RI/RC)

TUESDAY, January 8 and
 THURSDAY, January 10
 CLASS: 12:30 – 3:00 p.m.
 Break: 1:30-2:00 p.m.

10.The Babylonian Conquest of Israel

Old Testament prophets and New Testament writers cite the Babylonian Captivity as a pivotal time in Israel’s history. Prophets forecast it as punishment for Israel’s pagan idolatry; it occurred between the rule of the great empires of Assyria and Persia, which impacted the Jews, and its relevance was made current by Saddam Hussein, who intended to repeat it. Class instructors are Tom Ewald, professor emeritus of Lincoln Christian University and Seminary, and Mark Mangano, an Old Testament scholar and professor at Lincoln Christian University and Seminary. (RI/NI/NC)

11. Encaustic Painting: Ancient Times to the Present

Encaustic is an ancient, versatile, and compelling medium composed of beeswax and damar resin. The addition of pigment creates paint that is vibrant and luminous. Encaustic pieces are built up in heat-fused layers, scraped back, and built up again – a process of conceal and reveal. The transparency of the wax allows previous marks and layers to show through. In this class, you will learn about the history of encaustic painting, the process of developing an encaustic work of art, and artists who use the medium. Class instructor is Elizabeth Davis, a local artist specializing in encaustic painting. Please note: this class will be held in the Heuser Art Center at Bradley University; shuttle transportation will be provided. (NI/NC)

12. Insurance:What You Should Know

Let’s be honest, when it comes to financial planning, insurance generally isn’t what first comes to mind. Without a solid insurance plan, however, you may be leaving yourself financially exposed to unpredictable life events in retirement. In this class, we’ll explore the basics of health insurance and Medicare, and discuss if life insurance is needed as we get older. We'll also explore facts about long term care insurance, disability insurance, and umbrella policies. Class instructors are Donovan Sanchez, a CLU® financial advisor with Savant Capital Management, and Teresa Hagen, an insurance broker. (NIs/NC)

After retiring from a 35-year teaching career, Champ Walker undertook an adventure that posed big challenges and tested his physical and mental abilities – he rode a bicycle across the United States. He met great people, saw beautiful scenery, and had to overcome many obstacles. He wrote a book about the trip (EFI – Every Foot and Inch), but this is your chance to hear his stories about this once-in-a-lifetime experience! (NI/NC)

This class will address many of the challenges related to the journey to retirement, including financial preparation, home ownership, and downsizing. Instructors will discuss the best approach to handling the sale of one's most valuable asset, the family home. Instructors will explain what is needed to prepare for a move from independent living, to assisted living, to memory care, or to nursing home care. Class instructor is Mary Jane Sterling, retired mathematics instructor at Bradley University and author of many For Dummies books and workbooks. (RI/NC)

20. The Impacts Photography Had on the Civil War

Photography was coming of age during the Civil War. Initially used as a form of art in 19th century culture, photography quickly developed into a profitable national enterprise. Mathew Brady and other photojournalists brought the carnage, suffering, and sacrifice of war to the home front. Soldiers posed in their uniforms to send final mementos home to their loved ones. Photography also documented the war from beginning to end with huge impacts on the nation's morale. This class will examine how photography was used not only for news propaganda and documenting the ravages of war, but also in remembering and memorializing the dead. Class instructor is Christina Lea Smith, a scholar who focuses on nineteenth century American history and Civil War seminars. (RI/NC)

21. It Takes a Region: Economic Development Beyond a City's Borders

Economic development is described as a very local issue, but good jobs don't recognize municipal borders. Come learn how our region is approaching economic development, what strategies and tools it is employing, and why it is important to you. Chief Loren Marion and his staff will discuss the Peoria Police Department's administration, history, and current policies and practices. Officers will also cover multiple aspects of use of force in today's policing, case law, policies, and tactics that guide officers in their use of force. (NIs/RI/NC)

25. Peoria Reads 2019:

Can't We Talk about Something More Pleasant?

The Peoria Reads selection for 2019 is Can't We Talk About Something More Pleasant? by longtime New Yorker cartoonist Roz Chast. The memoir tells the story, through cartoons, of Chast's parents' final years, family photos, found documents, and narrative prose. Chast uses humor to explore the often grim and stressful subject of our parents' final years. Join Roberta Koscielski, deputy director of Peoria Public Library, and Wayne Cannon, manager, Peoria Area Food Bank, in a discussion of the book and how our society deals with old age and death. We'll also evaluate the graphic memoir style of writing. (RIs/NC)

26. The Role of Faith in the Changes of Life

Life is a series of changes, which, as we age, seem to come more quickly. How does faith help us deal with the sometimes unwanted, apparently unworthy, events we may think we don't need to grieve? What does healthy grieving look like and how can we move forward confidently? Pat Edwards, a licensed clinical social worker specializing in geriatrics with the Antioch Group, will share the role of faith in her life from a professional and personal point of view. (RI/NC)

Break: 1:30-2:00 p.m.

27. Alternative Health Care

This class will explain alternative therapies that can help you live a healthier lifestyle through the use of acupuncture, massage, chiropractic, essential oils, and supplements. Class instructor is Dr. Kurt Pepperell, chiropractor/acupuncturist. (RI/NC)

28. The British Invasion

It would be easy to focus this class entirely on the Fab Four, but there were many other bands other than The Beatles who knocked American artists off the charts. We'll get to know all about them, including The Rolling Stones, The Dave Clark Five, Herman's Hermits, The Animals, The Who, and many more. Join us as we listen to clips of their music, sing along, and dance in the aisles. Class instructor is Don Baker, local disc jockey, Peoria Journal Star sports writer, speech teacher, and music lover. (RI/NC)

29. The Charley Steiner School of Sports Communication

Bradley University's renowned identification with major intercollegiate sports is integral to its modern history as a strong comprehensive university. The sports industry today is also much more than athletes. It is a major economic and global cultural phenomenon that has rapidly evolved to embrace fully the media forces of journalism, broadcasting, marketing, public relations, entertainment, and management. Taken together with the popularity of Bradley's nationally prominent mass communications programs, a major in Sports Communication was a natural for Bradley. Join class instructor Paul Gullifor, Henry Means Pindell Endowed Chair in Communication and professor in sports communication and television arts, as he describes how Sports Communication was launched as a handful of courses in 2009, became a major in 2013, and in 2015 became the Charley Steiner School of Sports Communication. (RI/NC)

30. Gardening for Pollinators

Some scientists estimate that one out of every three bites of food we take is made possible by the ecosystem services provided by pollinators. Many insect and pollinator populations, however, are in decline around the world. In this class, we'll learn about the important role of pollinators, what they need to live, and what you can do in your corner of the world to help support them. We'll also learn about gardening practices that support pollinators, plants that are important sources of their food, and how you can incorporate pollinator habitat into your landscape. Class instructor is Vicki Morrical of the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Department, and Ella Maxwell of Hoerr Nursery. (RI/NI/NC)

31. History of the Future

Many people are fascinated by the future and enjoy speculating about what our future might look like. This class will study the future as a history topic, a perspective of the future that is rarely explored. We will examine the accuracy of past predictions, discuss current predictions, and determine why some of these predictions were so awful. John Amdall, OLLI volunteer, will share his historical research on the future and thought on what can be learned from past predictions. A handout will be provided so class participants can continue to explore the future on their own. (RI/RC)

32. The History of Mathematics: Who, What, and Where?

The history of mathematics is rich with people, places, and stories. Mathematics has developed over the centuries thanks to the efforts of many. In this class, we will hear about some of these pioneers and their impact on

Participants will learn the similarities and differences among these belief systems, keeping in mind that each tradition has followers with differing perspectives. Class instructors are Dr. Prakash Babu, leader at the Hindu Temple of Central Illinois, Susan Brill-deRamirez, a lay leader at the Peoria Baha’i Center, and Jeff Smith, a lay leader of Christian scriptures. (RI/NI/RC)

34. The Man Behind The Music Man

Fresh from her 2018 Winter class on Rodgers and Hammerstein, Denise Adams turns her focus to Meredith Wilson, who was much more of a music man than you might know. Hint: he was not the model for Harold Hill. Be ready for many surprises and live performances! Class instructor is Denise Adams, a pianist, oboist, musical director, and retired teacher. (RI/NC)

35. To Sleep, To Dream: An Update on What We Should Know About Sleep

In 2010, OLLI members explored the topic of sleep from the standpoint of health. What has happened in our knowledge of sleep in the last decade? Is it true that sleep deprivation can shorten one’s life? Class instructor is Marjorie A. Getz, associate professor at Methodist College and lead faculty for the Gerontology Certificate Program. (RI/NC)

Our
make a difference!

2018 Fundraising Update

OLLI members have shown support of our lifelong learning community through consistent and generous donations to our annual fundraising campaigns.

This year’s campaign is already off to a great start, thanks to the success of our Fourth Annual Trivia Night Fundraiser in late August. The 180 participants embraced the Sixties theme (see Mary Barthel, pictured above), and raised nearly $7,000 for OLLI. To help make the night even more fun, WMBD’s Greg and Dan were far out emcees, the Bradley Brains were a gas, and the volunteer judges were straight!

For this fiscal year (ending May 31, 2019), the OLLI Executive Committee has set a monetary goal of $55,000 to purchase new audio-visual equipment for the Marty Theater, site of many of our large classes each season. This new equipment should greatly enhance your learning experiences during OLLI classes. In addition, it will be a wonderful benefit to our campus, as the new sound system will improve the events held in the theater year-round.

Your donations have funded audio-visual improvements and the construction of a soundproof wall in the Michel Student Center ballrooms, the purchase and ongoing maintenance of two 14-passenger shuttles, the sponsorship of cinema and lecture programming, and the support of Bradley University students through student volunteer awards.

We are so proud to have sustained our donor participation rate near 40% for the past several years, and hope for at least 475 people to donate again this year. ## STUDY GROUPS

Study groups offer the opportunity to investigate a topic in depth with like-minded peers. You may work independently outside the group; you may lead the group; or anything in between. Study groups are your connection to studying what you most enjoy with people who share your enthusiasm. The groups meet at Bradley University and many other locations throughout our community.

Study groups are categorized by the anticipated level of member participation as described below:

- Discussion-based: participants may be asked to read material and participate in whole group discussions
- Participation-based: participants may be asked to read material, participate in small group breakouts/discussions, do research, and/or make brief oral reports
- Practice-based: participants may be asked to learn a skill set and engage in practice between sessions

DISCUSSION-BASED

1. The Happiness Hypothesis: Finding Modern Truth in Ancient Wisdom

Mondays, January 14 – February 18

8:30 – 10:45 a.m.

Peoria Next Innovation Center

Minimum 8 participants, register by December 31

Start your week off on a happy note! This study group was suggested by an OLLI member who was interested in keeping alive the current dialogue that has developed from many new books focused on life satisfaction and happiness. We will read The Happiness Hypothesis: Finding Modern Truths in Ancient Wisdom by psychologist Jonathan Haidt, available at local and online retailers and libraries. Haidt describes ideas that dominated a civilization or epoch then explores the idea in light of what we now know from scientific research. Is the truth in the idea borne out? Does each idea still have relevance to our modern lives and human flourishing? We'll have the chance to incorporate even more recent scientific knowledge into a comprehensive exploration of these ideas. Participants should be prepared to read the book, and must have an email address and access to the internet.

$45 – facilitated by Marjorie Getz, a professor of arts and sciences at Methodist College. (RF/NG)

2. The Great American Read: Featuring The Catcher in the Rye and A Separate Peace

Tuesdays, January 15 – February 12

1:30 – 4:00 p.m.

Peoria Next Innovation Center

Minimum 8 participants, register by January 2

The Great American Read explores and celebrates the power of reading through a list of 100 best-loved novels.

We will share our favorite titles from the list and discuss how a novel becomes a “favorite.” We will also discuss our featured books, each of which was released in the 1950s. Both became staples of high school curricula, but The Catcher in the Rye achieved even loftier status as a “banned book.” These novels invite comparison and contrast: The Catcher in the Rye was more widely read, but is it better than A Separate Peace, which has been characterized as “an altogether gentler, more quietly brilliant book”? We may have disagreed as sixteen year olds, but will we now? Bring your opinions, and let's talk. Participants must acquire and read both books, available at local and online retailers and libraries, and must have an email address and access to the internet.

$45 – facilitated by Murv Pretorius, retired attorney, and Roberta Koscielski, deputy director, Peoria Public Library. (RFs/NG)

3. Revisiting Eyes on the Prize

Tuesdays, January 15 – February 19

9:00 – 11:15 a.m.

Peoria Next Innovation Center

Minimum 6 participants, register by January 2

Join us for viewing and discussing segments of Eyes on the Prize, the award-winning documentary series that aired on PBS in the late 1980s and early 1990s. Each week we will watch one of the six episodes from the initial 1987 series, discuss the 1954-65 period, and explore the programs in the context of when they aired and today. Group facilitators Kurt and Keith Butterfield (yes, they're brothers) will lead the discussions. Participants will need an email address and access to the internet.

$45 – facilitated by Kurt Butterfield and Keith Butterfield, both Caterpillar retirees and frequent OLLI volunteers. (RFs/NG)

Dan Callahan and Tim Hartneck lead OLLI members while they visit the Moss-Bradley Neighborhood during OLLI's annual garden walk.

4. Earth, Wind, Water, and Waste – Environmental Sustainability

Wednesdays, January 16 – February 20

1:30 – 3:45 p.m.

Peoria Next Innovation Center

Minimum 5 participants, register by January 2

In this group, participants will discuss environmental sustainability, focusing on the human impacts on the environment and ways to use and preserve the environment. We will look at water, land, air, waste, and energy, exploring how each interacts and interconnects. Participants will read several essays and articles to enhance the discussions each week; the required books are For the Health of the Land by Aldo Leopold and Our Once and Future Planet by Paddy Woodworth, both available at local and online retailers and libraries. These additional books, although not required, may also be of interest to participants: A Sand County Almanac by Aldo Leopold and Environmental Ethics – An Introduction to Environmental Philosophy by Joseph R. DesJardins. Participants should be prepared to read the required books, and must have an email address and access to the internet. $45 – facilitated by Jason Haupt, an energy and environmental stewardship educator for the University of Illinois Extension Service. (NF/NG)

5. Immigration to the USA: A Study of the Historical, Political, Legal, Economic, Moral, and National Identity Issues

Thursdays, January 17 – February 7

10:00 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

Goodwill Commons

Minimum 12 participants, register by January 3

There are approximately 11 million people living in our country who are non-citizens, sometimes called “undocumented persons” and sometimes labeled “illegal criminal aliens.” What policies should apply to them? Participants will take a deep dive into these complex issues with open minds, using a fact-based approach, while maintaining mutual respect for differing opinions. We will look at how we have dealt with immigrants in the past and consider the current thinking. As another source of insight, participants will be invited to share what they know of their own ancestors’ coming-to-America story. Participants are expected to acquire and read American Immigration by David A. Gerber (available at local and online retailers and libraries), and must have an email address and access to the internet. $45 – facilitated by Rick Grawey, retired judge. (RF/NG)

6. Scribe to Screen: Animal Farm

Fridays, January 18 – February 15

9:30 – 11:45 a.m.

Peoria Next Innovation Center

Minimum 6 participants, register by January 4

George Orwell wrote Animal Farm as a fable to warn of the dangers presented by totalitarianism and how it evolved from the Russian Revolution through Lenin, Trotsky, and finally to the cruel Stalin. By viewing the film and reading the novel, we will look at ways the animals and humans of Animal Farm represented real-life counterparts and how the novel’s warnings are still relevant today. Participants will be asked to acquire and read Animal Farm (available at local and online retailers and libraries), and must have an email address and access to the internet.

$45 – facilitated by Don Samford, Peoria Area World Affairs Council education outreach chair and retired social studies teacher. (RF/NG)

7. The Forgotten Fifteenth Air Force in World War II

Tuesdays, January 22 – February 12

9:00 – 11:15 a.m.

Peoria Next Innovation Center

Minimum 10 participants, register by January 24

The Fifteenth Air Force is called “the forgotten Fifteenth” because it was based in Italy, far from the war correspondents in England with the Eighth Air Force. While the Eighth got the press, the Fifteenth won the war. Crossing the Alps, the aircraft of the Fifteenth headed straight for the Nazi oil fields – the most furiously guarded targets of the Third Reich. Through seemingly impenetrable flak and anti-aircraft fire, they dismantled the German war machine. In this group, participants will learn the fascinating history of these young men and how they managed to do the near impossible. Participants are expected to acquire and read The Forgotten Fifteenth (available at local and online retailers and libraries), and must have an email address and access to the internet. $45 – facilitated by David Jackson and Sarah Allen, private pilots and co-owners of A&J Aero Service. (RF/NG)

8. The Art of the Cocktail

Wednesdays, February 6 – 27

1:30 – 3:45 p.m.

Hearth Restaurant

Minimum 8 participants, register by January 23

This study group is for all levels of cocktail lovers, especially those who are intrigued by the creativity of mixology. We will study cocktails that you know (and don’t know) and demonstrate how the classics can be easily modified into modern cocktails that are great for entertaining others or enjoying on your own. We will review the history of cocktails, both pre-Prohibition and post-Prohibition, and identify the barware, books, and spirits that any home bar should contain. Of course, we will shake, stir, and taste test together along the way and discuss what appeals to you and why. Our goal is ultimately to freshen your approach to the cocktail hour for you and friends. Participants should have email addresses and access to the internet. Cheers!

$55 – facilitated by Tim Bertschy, retired as managing partner for Heyl Royster Voelker and Allen PC. (NF/NG)

9. Marilynne Robinson's Balm in Gilead*Thursdays, February 7 – 28*1:00 – 3:15 p.m.*Humana Guidance Center*Minimum 10 participants, register by January 24

Among the brilliant Pulitzer Prize winning offerings that American (and Iowan) novelist and essayist, Marilynne Robinson, has given us are two short, closely related love stories: Gilead and Home. Each tells beautifully, sometimes achingly, of small town families' joys and disappointments, set against the fragile wisdom of old age. Participants are expected to read and acquire both books, available locally and online from retailers and libraries, and must have email addresses and access to the internet. $45 – facilitated by Jane Hense, retired teacher, school administrator, and OLLI vice president. (RF/NG)

PARTICIPATION-BASED*10. 3-D Printing*Tuesdays, January 15 – February 5*1:00 – 3:15 p.m.*River City Labs*Minimum 6 participants, register by January 2

3-D printing is often referred to as the “next industrial revolution.” While the idea of printing your own consumer goods on demand is certainly exciting, there are many questions that relate to this technology: ownership and copyright, accessibility, technical issues, and cost. In this study group, participants will evaluate this technology and have an opportunity make their own 3-D prints. Participants must have email addresses and access to the internet.

$45 – facilitated by Fred Bliss, retired Caterpillar electrical engineer. (RF/NG)

You'll Love
Trip #8

11. Inventions that Changed Our World*Thursdays, January 17 – February 21*9:00 – 11:15 a.m.*Peoria Next Innovation Center*Minimum 8 participants, register by January 3

History is made not only by kings, queens, and presidents, but equally by inventors and the technological powers they unleash. This study group explores inventions that have changed the world – from prehistoric times into the 21st century. Along with recounting famous inventions such as the steam engine, airplane, atomic bomb, and computer chip, these lectures explore a number of surprising innovations. Participants will be required to view 1.5-hour videos at home between sessions, and must have email addresses and access to the internet.

$45 – facilitated by Bob Yonker and Dave Allan, Caterpillar retirees and frequent OLLI volunteers. (RF/NF/NG)

PRACTICE-BASED*12. Beginning Bridge IV*Mondays, January 14 – February 25*1:30 – 3:45 p.m.*Peoria Next Innovation Center*Minimum 8 participants, register by December 31

Facilitator Chuck Young is back this season to lead Beginning Bridge IV, which will focus on major and minor suit opening bids and responses. He will also cover weak two-bid openings and responses and the strong two-club openings and responses. The Stayman Convention, Blackwood Convention, and transfer bids will also be demonstrated. Participants will play four hands during each session, illustrating the material covered. Commonly Used Conventions, a book by nationally known authors Audrey Grant and Betty Starcik, will be included in your fee. $55 – facilitated by Chuck Young, bridge teacher certified by the American Contract Bridge League. (RF/NG)

13. Making A Video – The Cheap and Easy Way to Remember Vacations and More*Tuesdays, January 15 – February 19*10:00 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.*Goodwill Commons*Minimum 4 participants, register by January 2

Many of us have taken pictures of vacations, graduations, and family reunions, but we often let them linger in a box (or on our phones). Wouldn't it be wonderful to pull your pictures and videos together to share with your families for years to come? In this study group, participants will learn video and still picture shooting and editing skills for their home videos, which can be uploaded to social media or kept on DVDs. No technology required for this group, which will focus purely on technique. Participants must have email addresses and access to the internet.

$45 – facilitated by Tom McIntyre, who worked for 48 years in the Peoria area as a TV/radio reporter, photographer, and anchorman. (NF/NG)

OLLI classes are cancelled only when Bradley University closes due to inclement weather. Please stay tuned to local television and radio stations for cancellation announcements.

REGISTERING FOR OLLI – IMPORTANT INFORMATION

OLLI offers four ways to register: in person, mail, online, and telephone. Please read carefully, and choose your way to register.

There are two ways to register on Day 1, Wednesday, October 31, 2018: in person at a social and via mail.

The forms received at the social are processed by staff first, then when those are entered into our system, we process the forms received via USPS. All are processed in order of date received.

We offer the social as the first option for registration because one of the most critical aspects of our program is to maintain a sense of community as our membership grows. It is extremely important that we continue to gather as a group, provide opportunities for members to meet new friends and talk about their selections for the upcoming season, to interact personally with staff and volunteers, to have the chance to provide new programming ideas, and to pick up brochures for community distribution.

Forms mailed via USPS are numbered and bundled for processing on Day 1; many members who cannot attend in person choose to mail their registration forms as early as possible. We drop our brochures at local post offices for distribution 10 days before registration begins; we cannot guarantee a specific delivery date, however, as we pay bulk-rate postage.

REGISTRATION SOCIAL DETAILS

- The social will be held from 8:00 – 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, October 31, 2018 in the Michel Student Center Ballrooms at Bradley University.
- Free shuttle service will be available from Westminster Church, 1420 W. Moss Avenue, Peoria, from 7:30 – 10:00 a.m.
- Doors to the ballroom will open at 8:00 a.m. for number distribution. From 8:00 – 8:45 a.m., staff and volunteers will check your forms, answer questions, and discuss programming while you enjoy refreshments and meet new friends. Starting at 8:45 a.m., numbers will be called in order for processing.
- On Day 2, Thursday, November 1, 2018, at 9:00 a.m., our staff will be ready to accept registrations via telephone, (309) 677-3900, and online (Bradley.edu/olli). Keeping these options to Day 2 ensures that we provide the top-quality customer service for which we always strive.

- We do not offer all four options on Day 1 in order to prioritize our socialization, provide the previously mentioned top-quality customer service, and not overwhelm our small office with walk-ins and telephone calls.

Other important details:

- If you are waitlisted for a program, no payment is necessary. If you use a check to pay for your registration, staff will return your check and ask for a replacement one with the new total due. If you use a credit card, we will only charge the card for the amount due.
- When you work with us, you are assured that online registration is done on a secure network. The OLLI registration system is compliant with Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards and the Fair Accurate Credit Transactions Act. Bradley University is strongly committed to maintaining the security of your information. We monitor threats to our computer networks and routinely update anti-virus software on all systems commonly attacked by identity thieves.
