

Eli Krule, Poetic License, Inc. Workshop
Sager Solomon Schechter School, 6th grade
Instructor: Arlyn Miller

Hopeless

Hopeless wakes up to an empty soul.
He lives in an abandoned house on the outskirts of town.
He always wears a black shirt that says, "What's the point?"
Hopeless walks with a slouch like the world is lost.
His face has only one expression, Disappointment.
His voice rattles like broken metal.

His attitude makes him friendless.
He was not always like this,
He only is because his old friend Despair is gone.
Hopeless destroys people's hopes with just one gaze.
Even when the enemy's gone, Hopeless feels like he doesn't belong.
Hopeless feels like Hope is lost.
He waits for Hope to come but leaves because Hope is gone.
Hopeless walks the streets feeling like he has been beat.