WHAT IS OLLI?

We are OLLI. We are your friends and neighbors, and we want to stay vital as we reach and enjoy retirement. One way to do that is to keep learning, so we've joined the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Bradley University – OLLI.

OLLI at Bradley has over 1,000 Peoria-area members from age 50 to 100 who come from all backgrounds and educational levels. Together we enjoy the camaraderie of our peers as we participate in a myriad of educational events designed just for us. The relaxed and friendly atmosphere of OLLI only adds to our experiences. It's learning our way!

OLLI offers several programs during its fall program: Learning Trips, Lectures, Cinema, Study Groups, and Classes. You'll find each of them described in this brochure.

WE ARE OLLI!

OLLI volunteers are the heart and soul of our organization. We celebrate our success due to their efforts. Thank you!

OSHER LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE AT BRADLEY UNIVERSITY

In late April, Michelle Riggio and I had the honor of representing you at the OLLI National Conference in Carlsbad, California. WHAT A GREAT EXPERIENCE! More than 250 attendees from 118 OLLI programs, the Bernard Osher Foundation, the OLLI National Resource Center, and the Osher Center for Integrative Medicine attended three days of workshops, seminars, and presentations.

We had the opportunity to meet the directors and volunteers from OLLIs from around the nation, share ideas and best practices, and learn from their experiences. I came away from the conference with a great deal of respect for the variety of programs offered throughout the country. I also came away with even more admiration for OLLI at Bradley and the amount of programming we accomplish with our staff and volunteers. I found no other OLLI program that utilizes volunteers as our OLLI does.

We are blessed to have you and urge you to keep on volunteering so we can continue to have the great variety of Classes, Study Groups, Learning Trips, Lectures, and Cinema programming. Michelle and I will be working with the OLLI Executive Committee to discuss some new ideas we learned at the conference, and I will report back to you in the Winter 2015 brochure on any actions to be implemented.

Yours in learning,

Bernie Drake, OLLI President

2014 OLLI Fundraiser at Kickapoo Creek Winery

Friday, August 29 • 3:30 – 7:00 p.m. • $60 per person
Registration information can be found on Page 29

Celebrate OLLI's 20th birthday by attending our special fundraiser event that will help OLLI continue its tradition of unique, high quality, engaging, and educational programming.

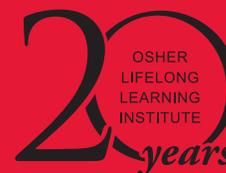

Vineyard tours on the famous Grape Train will begin at 3:30 p.m. and continue every half hour until 5:30 p.m. In between your tour and dinner, which begins at 5:45 p.m., join us on the pavilion patio for music by the Bradley University Jazz Combo, wine tastings with a keepsake glass, scrumptious appetizers, and socializing with your OLLI friends.

During dinner, we'll be entertained by Rex Havens, a former college professor who made the unusual transition to the stand up comedy stage in the 1980s. Rex will entertain us with his insightful observations about the hilarious miscommunication that populates our personal lives. A cash bar will be available.

Your 2013-14 gifts enabled OLLI to purchase a second shuttle and continue to bring you the Lectures and Cinema programs for free. This year, our fundraising efforts will focus on improving the audio-visual equipment and technology services for OLLI Classes, Study Groups, Cinema, Learning Trips, and Lectures.

If you're unable to attend our fundraiser, consider giving a separate, tax-deductible gift that will have a direct impact on OLLI's future. For more information about annual or planned giving, contact Janet Lange, Executive Director of Continuing Education, at (309) 677-3900.

LEARNING TRIPS

What could be better than a travel adventure that takes you off-the-beaten-path and behind-the-scenes? Better still – how much more fun would it be if someone else made all the arrangements for you? Now you have a sense of what it's like to join an OLLI Learning Trip. We like to travel, but our purpose is to investigate and explore our destinations. So you can expect that a local expert will be on the trip, or at the site, who can explain the significance of what we see and do. On the road, we have fun too whether it's a scenic pull-off, snack stop, or movie on the bus. Our goal is to provide a door-to-door experience in travel learning.

Participation in Learning Trips is worry-free. All travel arrangements are made by staff in Continuing Education, parking for your car is reserved during the trips, and most fees are included in the price. To make your trip even more enjoyable, please note:

- All Learning Trip times in this brochure are approximate and subject to change. Please refer to your itinerary (mailed upon registration) for specific departure, tour, and arrival times.
  - Many of our Learning Trips require walking and standing in various terrains and environments. To ensure your safety and to respect our hosts' regulations, everyone is required to wear closed-toed shoes on our trips.
  - Each Learning Trip includes an activity level. Before you register, make sure the activity level matches your abilities. This will ensure an enjoyable trip for you and those who travel with you.
- (1) Enter/exit vehicle with minimal assistance, climb some stairs, stand for up to an hour, and walk a few blocks indoors or out.
  - (2) Level I, plus: climb some flights of stairs and walk on uneven surfaces.
  - (3) Levels I & II, plus: healthy, mobile, and able to participate in 3-5 hours of daily physical activity.

Presentation 7:00 – 8:00 p.m.

LISC (Local Initiatives Support Corporation) is a national non-profit organization with a proven model and method for transforming troubled neighborhoods into places of growth and opportunity. Opened in 2012, the Peoria office became their 32nd location in the United States. LISC came to Peoria with the help of the Caterpillar Foundation, which supplied an initial $3 million grant to improve the East Bluff and South Side neighborhoods. An additional $2 million grant from the State Attorney General's office was secured from foreclosure mitigation funding, and will be leveraged to improve affordable housing in the East Bluff, which was hit particularly hard in the foreclosure crisis. Because LISC works with existing community organizations, this lecture will use a panel format. The local LISC Executive Director, Brandon Holmes, will provide an overview of LISC and will moderate the panel.

Young@Heart, from filmmakers Stephen Walker and Sally George, is a documentary which captures seven weeks in the lives of the members of a senior chorus from New England. It follows the group as they prepare for a show in their hometown which is only weeks away, and they must learn a slate of new songs, ranging from James Brown to Coldplay. The chorus' tireless musical director leads the group through a series of hilariously chaotic rehearsals, proving that hard rock can be hard work. Climaxing in a triumphant performance that will leave you cheering, their story highlights the unbreakable bonds of friendship and the life-affirming power of music. The film has been described as an inspirational journey with a group who may be old in body, but who refuse to grow old in spirit.

Peoria NEXT Innovation Center, discussions

On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, World War I ended, not with a surrender of the Central Powers but with an armistice. In January 1919 the allied powers, led by Great Britain, France, and the United States, met in Paris to write a treaty that would officially end the war with Germany, the Austria-Hungarian Empire, and the Ottoman Empire. For six months the Paris Peace Conference of 1919 would be a world government. Decisions made would not only shape events for the immediate future but would leave us with consequences even today. This cinema-discussion session will view the film Paris 1919 and then discuss the events, decisions, and consequences of the Paris Peace Conference of 1919. Participants who would like more information on the conference prior to the film should read the book Paris 1919—Six Months that Changed the World by Margaret MacMillan. It is highly recommended.

DINNER & A MOVIE

Elmwood Cinema Trip:
Shadow of a Doubt
Monday, September 29,
12:30 – 6:30 p.m.

Our day in Elmwood will begin with a visit to the nostalgic Palace Theatre, built in 1913, where owner Vern Reynolds will take us on a short tour of the theater as we learn its history and background. We'll have a private screening of Shadow of a Doubt, a 1943 American psychological thriller directed by Alfred Hitchcock, starring Teresa Wright and Joseph Cotten. Some critics consider Shadow of a Doubt Hitchcock's finest film. It was both filmed and set in Santa Rosa, California, which was portrayed as a paragon of a peaceful, small, pre-war American city. After the film, Randy Wilson and Carol May will moderate a short discussion on Hitchcock and the thriller genre. Dinner and conversation will continue as the group enjoys an evening meal together.

$55 - includes tour, film viewing, discussion, dinner, and round-trip shuttle transportation

STUDY GROUPS

Maybe you want to drill down or dig into a subject of special interest to you. That's the focus of OLLI Study Groups where we investigate a topic in depth. These discussion-based groups often include the opportunity for us to make presentations, lead a discussion, or do some reading or work outside the class. In this arrangement, each of us is both a learner and a teacher.

While Bradley University is often our base of operation, we also have several community connections that are opening their doors to OLLI Study Groups. Bickford Senior Living, Humana Guidance Center, Lutheran Hillside Village, Methodist North, Peoria NEXT Innovation Center, Trinity Lutheran Church, United Presbyterian Church, and Universalist Unitarian Church are great venues for this friendly give-and-take OLLI program.

Most of us would agree that babies should not be bought or sold. But, would we all deplore Rent-a-Womb, that is, paying a poor woman in India to gestate a baby for us? Join us as we read Michael Sandels book What Money Can't Buy, The Moral Limits of Markets (available in paperback and e-reader formats) and discuss such topics as paying for the right to immigrate to the U.S., auctioning admission to elite universities, paying people for donating organs or blood, outsourcing inmates to for-profit prisons, allowing corporations to pay for the right to pollute the atmosphere, allowing the securitization of death bonds wherein life insurance is taken on the life of an unrelated person, or paying students for grades or for reading books. $45 – facilitated by Henry Rakoff, former college professor, OLLI Study Group facilitator, and member of the OLLI Study Group Committee.

Writing the Stories of Your Life

Teddy, Franklin, and Eleanor: A Look at The Three Roosevelts with Ken Burns

Mondays, September 22 through October 27

10:00 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

Peoria NEXT Innovation Center

Starting on September 14, PBS and WTVP will air Ken Burns' seven-episode documentary called The Roosevelts: An Intimate History. In this series, Burns chronicles the lives of Theodore, Franklin, and Eleanor Roosevelt, three members of perhaps the most prominent and influential family in 20th century American political history. Between 1858 and 1962 (Teddy Roosevelt's birth and Eleanor's death), the Roosevelts redefined the relationship Americans had with their government and the wider world. Major historical events of that time period will be interwoven throughout the series with their personal stories. Paul Giamatti (Teddy), Edward Herrmann (Franklin), and Meryl Streep (Eleanor) will provide the voices of the three Roosevelts. Join in a lively discussion of the many dimensions of the Roosevelt story based on viewing the Burns documentary. Participants must be able to watch the series as it is aired (multiple showings will be available on WTVP) and participate in group discussion based on study questions provided by the facilitator. Participants may also supplement the series by reading James MacGregor Burns and Susan Dunn's book The Three Roosevelts and/or Geoffrey Ward's book for the series, The Roosevelts: An Intimate History. The Book of Psalms has formed the faith of people of many faiths for many thousands of years. After an overview of the Book of Psalms and a brief examination of the characteristics of Hebrew poetry, this Study Group will then examine how the Book of Psalms has been set to music. ### Natural Born Thrillers! What the Words We Use in the Stories We Tell Say About Us

Mondays, October 20 – November 24

9:30 – 11:00 a.m.

Michel Student Center

Psychologist Don McAdams proposes that all of us construct evolving life story narratives about ourselves that provide our life course with unity, meaning, and purpose.

Adding to this, English professor Jonathan Gottshall explores in his book, The Storytelling Animal, why we, as a species, may be wired for this type of story-telling. James Pennebaker, also a psychologist, has been at work for more than two decades on research that shows that the words we use in everyday talk (including stories we tell about ourselves) reveal surprising insights into our personalities, social relationships, leadership qualities, and human nature. This Study Group will explore the work of all three of these researchers as we investigate what our words, and how we fit them together, say about us.

$45 – facilitated by Marjorie Getz, MA, MPHIL, LCPC, Associate Professor, Methodist College.

A Tumultuous Relationship: Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo

Mondays, November 3 – December 8

9:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Peoria NEXT Innovation Center

If studying the life and paintings of the great Mexican artist Diego Rivera, it would be an over-sight not to include Frida Kahlo. These two artists had a tumultuous relationship during their time together. In this Study Group we will discuss their relationship and what part it played in their artwork. Their painting styles were totally different, but they had a message to impart to their viewers through their individual paintings. Each week we will discuss these two creative artists and their works of art related to what was going on in their lives at the times that they created each painting. No particular book is required for this Study Group, but participants will be encouraged to research the weekly discussion questions using either the resources of the library or the Internet. The questions for discussion will be sent out prior to the beginning of each session including the first meeting.

$45 – facilitated by Jean Gronewold, a frequent OLLI Class Instructor, Study Group Facilitator, and Learning Trip Lecturer.

Marc Young, owner of Parsec Enterprises, and OLLI member Davis Beuscher do a little bit of time traveling as they discuss the evolution of watch-making and repair at Parsec Enterprises.

OLLI Student Volunteer Award Winners Announced

In conjunction with Bradley University's Lewis J. Burger Center for Student Leadership, OLLI annually awards $500 to a Bradley student who exhibits exemplary volunteer service. This spring, OLLI was able to increase both the amount of the award as well as the number of recipients.

Thanks to the generosity of OLLI members, and through the leadership of the OLLI Executive Committee, funds were sufficient to recognize two students for their volunteer service with each receiving $1,000. Thanks to the Executive Committee members who reviewed the applications of several deserving students and ranked the applicants using a scoring rubric. The result is that two students were selected for this year's award.

Allen Ghareeb volunteered for Easter Seals, Mental Health America, served as a mentor for Big Brothers Big Sisters, and coordinated volunteer and relief opportunities for students helping the Central Illinois Tornado Relief effort.

He graduated in May and will start medical school this fall. In the meantime he is serving as OLLI's Temporary Program Coordinator.

Emily Goldberg (photo not available) volunteered for Habitat for Humanity, EPIC, Neighborhood House Food Pantry, and the Macon County Animal Shelter. Emily is a junior majoring in Social Work.

Thanks to all the OLLI members who made these awards possible through their generous donations. Given that volunteerism is the foundation of OLLI, it is fitting that members support students who are embarking on their own volunteer efforts. Your support is further evidence of the valued connection of OLLI to the Bradley community.

Assistive listening devices are available for all classes.

CLASSES

If you were to design the perfect class, it would probably look like this:

- You would study only the things that interest you.
- Your teacher would be knowledgeable, engaging, and down-to-earth.
- The class would have no grades or tests.
- And your classmates would mirror your age and interests.

If you could also meet on a college campus, have a guaranteed parking spot, and enjoy some free time together, you would be in an OLLI Class. We come to Bradley University three times a year to attend classes on every imaginable topic. ### 51. Japan: Its Culture, Influence, and Traditions

Join us for a survey of the unique aesthetic developments from Japan's history including its isolation, the opening to the West, and the impact of cross cultural influences. We will also discuss the survival of traditional crafts including Ikebana, Bonsai, Origami, Zen gardens, and the Tea Ceremony. Wabi Sabi and Shibui in art and architecture will be presented along with some examples of Japan's influence on Western art. The class instructor, Bennett Johnson, is a retired architect, Fine Arts Society president, and past OLLI instructor. (RI/NC)

52. Look What I Did

October 1 – Riding the Rails... In Your Own Rail Car!

Dave and Karen Stroemer have a very unusual hobby – riding railroad lines in their own railroad motorcar. These railroad motorcars, also known as "Speeders," were historically used for inspection and maintenance of railroad track. Today, the North American Railcar Operators Association organizes excursions in which their members operate their own privately-owned railroad motorcars on railroads throughout the US and Canada, traveling through some of the most picturesque and beautiful areas. The Stroemers will talk about the thrills and challenges of owning their own historical railroad motorcar, and describe some of their experiences on the 16,000 miles of rail they have traveled. (NI/RC)

October 8 – Life of Randy (Saxon)

Randy Saxon has been a very popular OLLI instructor for 20 years, but how much do you know about him? Randy, now retired, graduated from Princeton Seminary, has been an ordained minister for more than 40 years, is married to an ordained minister, taught at ICC for 10 years (now retired), has been a hostage negotiator, is on the Board of the Illinois State Historical Society, is an acknowledged expert on the history of the Civil War and Lincoln, has led tour groups to Civil War sites, National Parks, and international locations, is an accomplished gardener, writes songs and poems, and more. You've heard him speak about other people's history. Now hear him tell stories about his own. (NI/RC)

October 15 – From 20th Century Engineer to 19th Century Traditional Blacksmith – The Journey

Bud Harvey retired from Caterpillar in 2002. Starting in 1997 he began acquiring the skills and tools (including 25 anvils!) of a traditional 19th century blacksmith and built a blacksmith shop for his work and for teaching the craft. In his business, Hot Iron Blacksmith, he produces and markets artistic and functional hand-forged ironwork under the mantra "Forging Iron into Black Gold Treasures." He also

When Do I Get My Class Schedule?

It's a frequent question, so we want to help! Your class schedule is provided in several ways. If you register between July 30 and September 16, it can be picked up at the Kick-Off Luncheon on Wednesday, September 17. If you miss the luncheon, you will receive your class schedule in the mail. On the first day of classes, you get another opportunity to receive a class schedule when you check in at the OLLI registration desk (Michel Student Center 2nd floor foyer); it is conveniently printed on the back of your name badge!

teaches blacksmithing classes. Bud will talk about his journey to become an artistic blacksmith using modern engineering knowledge combined with traditional blacksmithing processes. (NI/RC)

October 22 – Wildlife Up Close and Personal – and Captured in Photos

Jim Miller has built a reputation for stunning wildlife photographs of bears, eagles, and other North American and Arctic wildlife that have been published in conservation and outdoor magazines, are on exhibit at the IDNR headquarters in Springfield, and at Forest Park Nature Center and Père Marquette State Park. His travels in pursuit of wildlife viewing and photography have taken him and his wife, Jayne, to locations in Alaska, Canada, and the high Arctic north of Norway. Jim will talk about his travels and the remote locations they visited while showing his photographs and telling the stories behind the images. (NI/RC)

53. Understanding Islam and Muslim Part I

Join this introductory class on Islamic beliefs, culture, and history; articles of Islamic faith; pillars of Islamic worship; Islamic prayer, Jihad and terrorism; Jesus and Muhammad; women, and origins. ### 54. Bradley Campus Walkabout

Generations of gargoyles, a prodigal one-of-a-kind sundial, and an unnoticed Shakespearian stage. A television studio, dorm dioramas, and a wall of excellence. The new gym, the new alumni center, the new quad, and more. Walk about campus with Jim Ludwig each week to take a closer look at favorite outdoor sculptures on the way to uncovering fascinating secrets and intriguing activities that go on inside some of the imposing buildings at Bradley University. Bring your camera, wear walking shoes, and hope for clear skies. The instructor is Jim Ludwig, Bradley Associate Professor of Theatre Arts Emeritus who has presented OLLI classes about Sherlock Holmes and Milton Freidman, and has led OLLI theatre excursions to London (with Dan Getz), Chicago, Conklin's Barn II in Goodfield, Illinois, and Bradley's own University Theatre at the Hartmann Center. (RI/RC)

55. Drawing and Sketching

Would you like to be a better painter? This class will help you. Understanding how light and shadow affect our perception of form is fundamental to drawing realistically. We will draw various shapes using still life arrangements in lighted conditions. Pencil techniques and composition will be emphasized. Sketches will be used to develop pleasing compositions. This class will be helpful to all levels of experience. The class instructor is Nanette Hammond, OLLI member and retired secondary teacher. A supply list will be provided, and the class is limited to 10 participants. (RI/NC)

56. Farming 101 – From the Field to the Market

As you drive through the country you are surrounded by fields of crops and pastures with livestock. But have you ever stopped to wonder what it takes to grow those crops or raise the livestock? What decisions does a farmer make, and what does it cost to make sure that the farmer gets the optimal yield from each field? What is some of the science behind making crops grow? How does crop insurance work and what does the Farm Bill really do? Join Jason Haupt, Environmental and Energy Stewardship Educator for the University of Illinois Extension and his colleagues Angie Peltier, Dennis Bowman, Dr. Laura Gentry, and Renee Death to learn how the food you eat gets from the farmers field to the market. (RI,NI,NI,NI&NI/RC)

Assistive listening devices are available for all classes.

57 A Jewish Understanding of the Conflict between Religion and Modernity

Does evolution disprove religion? Does being a person of faith require us to denounce scientific understandings that conflict with our religious theologies? In American discourse today, we frequently see religion as being in conflict with science and modernity. In this course, Rabbi Bogard will argue that for Judaism, at least, there is no conflict at all between the two. Together, we will study Jewish texts from antiquity to modernity. Absolutely no experience in philosophy or Judaism is required! This will also be a great way to explore the ideas of pre-modernity, modernity, and postmodernity in a fun and informative way. (RI/NC)

58. The New Jim Crow

In Michelle Alexander’s book, The New Jim Crow: Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness, the author discusses a system of mass incarceration in the US that produces many of the same effects on racial minorities as did the old Jim Crow system of discrimination. We will explore her arguments in detail and give them the attention they deserve. The instructor is Rev. Michael Brown, Minister, Universalist Unitarian Church. (RI/RC)

OLLI Classes Held at Michel Student Center and Westlake Hall

If you would like to catch a ride between buildings, use the new OLLI Shuttle to travel between Westlake Hall and the Michel Student Center. Bradley University Student Admission Representatives (STARS) are at your service to pick-up and drop-off OLLI members in front of the Student Center and behind Westlake Hall throughout the day. If you need additional assistance during the day, please call (309) 258-4142.
