

The World Should Change

They should all change.
We are all the same.
They should all be treated fairly.
They should all have the same rights.
We are all the same people.
We have the same abilities.
So why not just all be friends?
And do whats right.
Like God wants us to.
We should stop the uprising.
And all be respectful and fair.
Get the same rights as all.
And be able to do the same things.
And have no more riots.
Or at least protest peacefully.
But even better keep the peace.
