One

One light,

One hope,

One difference,

Small,

Possibly insubstantial,

But all the same,

One difference.

One light,

In a world of darkness,

One movement,

In a world of stillness,

One hope,

In a world of depression,

One action,

Made from good intentions,

can help the world.

Maybe not visibly,

But it can slowly show.

One light,

In a world of darkness,

One movement,

In a world of stillness,

One hope,
In a world of depression,
One difference.
