

My story

---

Hi, my name is Macie

This is my story

It's pretty long so I'll shorten it

In 2013 depression decided to say Hi

Cancer took not only my grandma but my best friend

I honestly wanted to die

But, Mrs. Atkins helped, a lot

I trust her with ANYTHING

It was just a bump in the road

Well, at least I thought it was

In October 2014

My Father cheated on my mom

I was so mad, but also very upset

By November my dad stopped coming around

I've only seen him 5 times since then

He goes to my brothers ball games.

But, he's not alone

He brings his girlfriend

I HATE her

I've been upset since

I just don't show it

I'm just too good at hiding it.
