

My Love

My safety net with his sweet cup of homemade pudin',

With his familiar taste of home.

My everlasting drink with his savory, fresh, and flavorful bottle of 7-up

With his continued presence to refresh my smile.

My free-flier with his ever moving bluebird wings,

With his song that goes to the beat of my heart.

My precious stone with his rare and kind ruby,

With his unique dance.

My hawthorne tree with his giant thorns,

With his rough exterior but sweet touch where his roots meet mine.

My lake with his peaceful beauty,

With his closeness to where I long to be.

My bedtime story, my knight with his shining armor,

With his slain dragons and strong tower.

My love with his familiar taste of home.
