Job/Internship Search Checklist

The job search can feel overwhelming, so it is helpful to break it into manageable steps. The good news is you do not have to do every step in order. For example, you can start working on your resume before you identify what you want to do. Just start checking off as many of these activities as you can, and you'll find yourself on the way to a great opportunity.

You can receive assistance for every one of these steps through the SCC. Call (309) 677-2510 to make an appointment with your Career Advisor. And you do not have to do it all during business hours – start by checking our website bradley.edu/scc for lots of links and helpful information.

Step 1: Know yourself.

- I have made a list of possible job titles/fields of interest.
- I can name two or three careers/jobs I plan to pursue.

Step 2: Know where you want to work.

- I have researched organizations or companies that might hire someone with my skills, interests, and background.
- I have researched potential career fields: typical entry-level jobs, typical salaries, best geographic location for jobs, etc.
- I have identified the top three geographic areas where I'd like to live and work.
- I have identified 10 potential employers for the type of work I'm seeking.

Step 3: Get ready for the search.

- I have logged in to MyBU to access my BRADLEY eRecruiting account.
- I have had my resume(s) and cover letter(s) reviewed by a professional in the field or a staff member at SCC, or use SCC online resources for help.
- I have prepared a portfolio, work samples or a website to highlight my experience, skills, and talent.
- I have developed my "30-second speech" for short encounters with employers.
- I have analyzed my education and developed my "story" for employers.
- I have identified three individuals who will serve as references.
- I have developed my interview skills.
- I have prepared for interviews by practicing my responses to typical questions, using SCC online resources and/or doing a mock interview.
- I have professional interview attire that is appropriate for the field in which I plan to work.
- I have a professional-sounding voice mail message in case an employer calls.
- I have a neutral/professional e-mail address to give to employers.
- I have looked into or enrolled in EHC 301- Career Planning Strategies (BUS 220 for students in the Foster College of Business Administration)

Step 4: Start searching.

- I have uploaded and published my resume(s) to eRecruiting.
- I regularly check the eRecruiting website for career opportunities.
- I have researched the additional websites available on the SCC website and online resources available for jobs/internships at home and abroad.
- I read the career center newsletter for appropriate job-search resources for my field(s) of interest.
- I have attended the annual job fairs.
- I have a system for keeping track of my contacts, interviews, and other job-search activities.
- I follow up on every interesting job lead immediately.
- I have developed a list of potential networking contacts and keep in touch with them.
- I keep a copy of my resume next to my phone in case I receive a call from an employer.
- I follow-up each cover letter with a phone call or email to the employer requesting a job interview.
- I send thank you letters or emails to every person who interviews me.
