

Army Bands Internship

The objective of the Army Bands Summer Program is to provide ROTC music majors with exposure to the Army Bands operational environment. This internship will present cadets with an understanding of the purpose of Army Bands and their functions. The underlying philosophy of the Army Bands Summer Program is to provide ROTC music majors with real-world experiences with Army Bands which will be completed with the TRADOC Band, various other Army Bands, and the U.S. Army School of Music. The internship is a three week course that takes place during the undergraduate academic summer break. The program covers a variety of disciplines to include the following:

Military Musical Leadership
Capabilities of Army Bands
Employment of Army Bands
Army Bands Operations and Training
Logistical and Resource functions
Ceremonial and Functional Music
Support functions
Community Relations
Soldier & Family Support

Locations:

Cadets in the Army Bands Summer Program will serve at Ft. Eustis, VA.

Prerequisites:

1. Graduate or Undergraduate degree of study in Music Performance, Music Education, or Music Theory.
2. GPA 2.7 or better in academic major and must have completed their third year of Undergraduate education.
3. Meet current APFT and height/weight standards at the time of application and during attendance.
4. MS III Cadets have priority. However MS IV Cadets graduating December or later may apply as an exception to policy.
5. Applied for secret security clearance.