Upcoming Events and Activities in the Office of Sponsored Programs – APRIL 2014

EXPO DEADLINE and Masi International Scholars Award Deadline
Student presenting in the 2014 Bradley Expo on topics pertaining to the geo-political, economic, financial, social, or cultural events in the Middle East, the Korean Peninsula, or other regions of the world, are eligible for a cash award of up to $1,000. This year, up to 3 awards of $3,000 each may be made. The deadline to register for the Expo is MONDAY, MARCH 31st (click here for more info). The deadline to apply for the MASI Award is TUESDAY, APRIL 1st. (Click here for more info).

FULBRIGHT Information Session for Faculty. March 27th, 4:30 p.m., Westlake Room 116
Bradley's Fulbright Committee, led by chair Dr. Tim Conley, and the Office of Sponsored Programs are pleased to offer an information session about the Fulbright Scholars Program. Anyone interested in teaching or conducting scholarship abroad should attend--all disciplines and experience levels are eligible. Refreshments will be served. R.S.V.P: Sharon Rast, ext. 3877, srast@fsmail.bradley.edu.

HUMANITIES and FINE ARTS FUNDING ROUNDTABLE
April 7th, 5:00 p.m., Kaufman Building.
Professors Margaret LeJeune, Danielle Glassmeyer, and Emily Gill will join Sandra Shumaker in leading a roundtable discussion about applying for funding from Guggenheim, The American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS), The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH), and The National Endowment for the Arts (NEA). RSVP by clicking here.

ILLINOIS HUMANITIES COUNCIL PRESENTATION – RESCHEDULED FROM WINTER
April 16th, 5 p.m. Executive Dining Room, Michel Student Center
Rescheduled from a cancellation in February due to weather, Matt Meacham, Program Officer for the Illinois Humanities Council (IHC), will present on IHC’s grant programs and funding priorities. Light dinner fare provided. Space is limited, click here to register. Matt will also be serving as a judge in our 2014 Bradley Expo.

Annual OSP Proposal Preparation Workshops:
Faculty may choose between a 4-day workshop offered the week of May 27, or a 3-day, condensed workshop offered August 21 - 23. Participants will receive a stipend for participating, and another upon successful submission of a proposal within the upcoming academic year (which is an expectation of all participants). More information will be disseminated in mid-April, but space is limited. Reserve your spot by sending an email to Sandra Shumaker at sshumaker@fsmail.bradley.edu.

NEW Grant-seekers Database Subscription
OSP is pleased to offer Bradley faculty and administrators access to InfoEd Global’s Spin Global Suite. The SPIN database provides access to over 40,000 funding opportunities from over 10,000 funders. Click here for more information. Please contact Sandra to schedule individual or group/departmental training sessions at sshumaker@fsmail.bradley.edu.
